DIRECTOR APPOINTMENTS ANNOUNCED

Christchurch City Holdings Limited (CCHL) are pleased to announce appointments to the Red Bus, Lyttelton Port Company and Christchurch City Holdings boards as from their Annual General Meetings being held in October and November.

Sabrina Kunz is appointed to the Red Bus board and brings a background in business development and governance. Her key sectors of work have been in justice, real estate and crown entities. She has a strong interest in regional economic development.

Don Elder has been appointed to the Lyttelton Port Company board. Dr Elder is the Chair and CEO of Spanbuild Holdings Ltd. He has a BE and a Doctorate in Engineering. He brings a high focus on health and safety and extensive operational and governance experience and knowledge of the Port industry.

Alex Skinner will be appointed to the Christchurch City Holdings board as from the AGM in November. Previously the Christchurch Office Managing Partner at KPMG, Alex has a portfolio of governance roles including Chair of the Otautahi Community Housing Trust and Trustee of the World Buskers Festival. He has relevant audit experience in several industry sectors where CCHL has investments such as the Port, Airport and energy distribution.

CCHL welcomes these new directors onto the boards.
