LYTTELTON PORT COMPANY – APPOINTMENT OF CHAIR ELECT

The Chair of Christchurch City Holdings Limited (CCHL), Jeremy Smith, is pleased to announce that CCHL have appointed Margaret Devlin as the Chair Elect for Lyttelton Port Company. She will commence on the board in May and take up the role as Chair following the AGM in October this year.

Trevor Burt will retire as Chair at the AGM after serving ten years on the board including five years as the Chair. Trevor has led the company through the period following the earthquakes and the planning and initial delivery of the Lyttelton Port Recovery Plan. Mr Smith complimented Mr Burt stating that he had made a valuable contribution to the CCHL group through a very challenging period.

Margaret Devlin is a professional Director with very extensive Board and Chair experience. She is the current or former Chair of Watercare Services Ltd, Harrison Grierson and WEL Networks Ltd. Margaret has also served as a Director on the Boards of City Care Ltd, Meterological Services of NZ Ltd, Hamilton International Airport Ltd and Ultrafast Fibre Ltd.
